May Open Direct Talks With Cong

By FRANK COROIER
Associated Press Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — President Johnson and South Viet-nam's President Nguyen Van Thieu formal talks apparently will embrace possible direct Saigon-Viet Cong negotiations and a total bombing halt in the North.

In advance of today's first formal meeting at the hilltop headquarters of the U.S. Pacific Command, Secretary of Defense
Clark Clifford said he avoided those two topics during his Saigon visit earlier in the week "in order to leave that up to Thieu and President Johnson."

Clifford talked to newsmen Thursday at Hickam Field as he walked with Johnson to greet Thieu's chartered airliner.

Johnson, in welcoming the South Vietnamese leader, reflected on the peace search under way in Paris and offered these words of reassurance to his visitor:

"Mr. President, our pledge to help your people defeat aggression stands firm against all obstacles and against any deception."

Thieu, dwarfed by the U.S. chief executive, responded by saying he looked forward to discussions of "accomplishments as well as problems that lie before us." He said he hoped for "steps toward peace and freedom for Vietnam and Southeast Asia."

Only a few score uniformed military personnel and dependants, plus a small costumed delegation from Honolulu's Vietnamese colony, were allowed to witness the arrival ceremony.

Authorities obviously had taken pains to avoid any antiwar demonstration.

Both Johnson and Thieu were doing most of their traveling around the island of Oahu by helicopter.

The American President was quartered at a luxury seaside home built by the late industrialist Henry J. Kaiser. It was sealed off from the curious.
Thieu was staying at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Walkiki beach.

After Johnson's arrival in Hawaii Thursday afternoon, White House officials learned about a published report from Saigon that Clifford, while there, had persuaded Thieu to make two major "concessions"—to go along with a total bombing halt in the North and to agree to direct talks with Viet Cong representatives at broadened peace negotiations to be proposed at some point in the future.

Tom Johnson, assistant White House press secretary, quickly quoted Clifford as saying, "The report is wholly inaccurate."

Besides Clifford, Johnson's party included Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Director Richard Helms of the Central Intelligence Agency, Gen. Earle G.
Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Ellsworth Bunker, ambassador to South Vietnam.

and that the files did not know defined or because of navigational error.

Crank Has Largest Headquarters Staff of All Candidates

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Crisp efficiency, snappy organization.
That's what impresses a visitor to the Marion Crank for Governor Campaign Headquarters in the Grady Manning Hotel.

An attractive receptionist, seated at her well-organized desk, greets Mr. Voter on the second floor. She steers him to the campaign manager's office, to the youth division, to the mail room, or to any of the other 10 carpeted offices on the second and third floors.

Marion Crank's campaign headquarters is operated by probably the largest paid staff of any of the other five Democratic candidates.

There are approximately 15 on the payroll, according to press aide, John Burnett of Little Rock.

THANKS FROM CROSS

Editor The Star:
To the managers, coaches and fans of Little League:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your attitude of good sportsmanship during the schedule of Little League just completed. Special thanks go to the managers and coaches for their cooperation and assistance in making my job as umpire one of the most pleasant that I can remember. Your leadership and attitude at the games are deeply appreciated.

The fine spirit of the managers, coaches, auxiliary and officials has made this one of the best Little League schedules I have ever worked with.

I want to invite all Little League fans, and the public in general, out to our District Tournament, beginning at 5:45 p.m. on July 24, 1968. Each boy who plays in the tournament is an All-Star, and has earned prisoner arrived.

One other car, carrying Criminal Court Judge John Coulton, had driven into the parking lot a short time earlier. There was no indication why Coulton came to the jail.

Ray's departure from London's Wandsworth jail was as shrouded in secrecy as was his arrival in Memphis. It could not be determined where he boarded the jet in England, nor who accompanied him.

Throughout the night in Memphis, deputies and city policemen had guarded the jail and court complex. Then, at 4:15 a.m., a large bus was backed across a driveway, blocking the view of the jail entrance.

Three minutes later, 10 sheriff's deputies carrying riot guns marched out of the building and blocked the entrance.

Lull in Ground Fighting

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The spotlight shifted back to the air war in Vietnam Thursday as ground fighting relapsed into another lull.

With the threatened big Viet Cong offensive against Saigon evidently delayed and with President Nguyen Van Thieu in Honolulu for a summit meeting with President Johnson, a watch and wait mood prevailed in South Vietnam.

Over the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, American pilots flew 112 missions below the 19th parallel Thursday in the continuing effort to reduce the flow of supplies to enemy troops in the South.

The fliers reported destroying or damaging 29 trucks, 11 supply boats and seven bridges and touching off 171 sustained fires and 31 secondary explosions.

Air Force pilots said 57 of the fires were at a large military storage area about 30 miles above the demilitarized zone.

Marine pilots attacked the Dong Hol airfield, believed to be used now as a supply base rather than an airstrip, while Navy pilots concentrated on highways and water traffic.

Eight-engine B52 bombers joined in the raids above the demilitarized zone and also struck eight times Thursday and today in South Vietnam against suspected enemy bases in the central highlands and on the central coast, in the Mekong Delta about 100 miles southwest of Saigon and in Tay Ninh Province about 50 miles northwest of the capital.

The B52 raids are part of the campaign to brake up enemy forces massing to attack Saigon.

National police reported uncovering what appeared to be a Viet Cong local headquarters in a residential district of the capital early today. Police seized two automatic rifles, nine Viet Cong flags, a typewriter, a tape recorder, documents and two suspects.

Viet Cong gunners fired a dozen rocket and mortar rounds into the Nha Be petroleum depot seven miles southeast of Saigon late Thursday, but U.S. spokesmen reported no casualties and only light damage.

Allied troops continued their patrols around Saigon to interlong-expected third major at-

They turned up four more weapons caches three to seven miles southwest of the capital.

Their finds included two mortars, three bazooka-type rocket launchers, more than 100 rockets, 16,000 rounds of ammunition for small arms, and automatic weapons, more than 200 grenades and some 200 pounds of TNT.

Foreign Aid Bill Is Cut Again

By ROBERT A. HUNT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, ignoring a plea by President Johnson, has slashed another $370-million-plus from the foreign aid authorization bill, leaving $1.994 billion for the program.

It was the first time the authorization has fallen below $2 billion and with this big cut an the possibility of more trimming when the money is actually appropriated, supporters were considered lucky that the bill survived at all.

There had been moves in the House to clamp a moratorium on all foreign aid.

The $1.994-billion bill for the fiscal year which started last July 1 was approved by 228-184
Thursday night and sent to the Senate.

The 44-vote margin was a far cry from the eight votes by which a $2.67 billion authorization was approved last year when Congress actually appropriated $2.2 billion.

Johnson had appealed to Congress not to cut any more from the bill which was slashed nearly $600 million by the House
Foreign Affairs Committee.

Johnson originally asked Congress for $2.92 billion.

A small group of Republicans, led by Rep. E. Ross Adair of Indiana, had set their sights on cutting another $400 million on the House floor. They almost made it, reducing the total by some $370.8 million, as a late 287-150 roll call overturned earlier defeats for some cuts.

The House also wrote in a directive for the President to negotiate with Israel for the sale of 50 F4 Phantom jet fighters which backers claimed is necessary for peace in the Middle East. They pointed to the Soviet Union's supplying jet fighters and bombers to Egypt.

By top-heavy margins the House insisted that no funds under the military assistance program be given to less developed countries for the purchase of such sophisticated weapons as jet planes or missiles. If these nations buy the systems with their own funds, the President is directed to withhold economic aid in a like amount.

For

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

To The Citizens Of Hempstead County:

I would like to take this opportunity to ask for your vote and support in the coming Democratic Primary on Tuesday, July 30.

People throughout the District are concerned about the manner in which the Prosecuting Attorney's office is being handled. Law enforcement officers, merchants, lawyers and people who have served on recent criminal juries are concerned about this matter.

Our court dockets are crowded with criminal cases and yet fewer and fewer cases are being tried. Convictions are few and the maximum penalty for murder throughout the District is SEVEN (7) years, with one exception, and that was where a Special Prosecutor was employed to try the case.

I invite you to check with your friends, your merchants and your law enforcement officers concerning the record of my opponent and I feel that you will agree that A CHANGE IS NEEDED in the Prosecuting Attorney's office.

I WILL APPRECIATE YOUR VOTE AND SUPPORT!

Sincerely,

W.H. "Dub" Arnold

MR. AND MRS. PAUL H. HARVEL

The wedding of Miss Gail Hartsfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Hartsfield, and Paul H. Harvel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross H. Harvel of Ft. Worth, Tex., was solemnized July 12 at 7 p.m. in the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church with the Rev. Clyde Johnson officiating.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with white gladiolus, white stocks, greenery and candelabra holding white tapers. Mrs. Wade Warren, organist, played a program of pre-nuptial music and accompanied Miss Donna Connolly, who sang "One Hand, One Heart" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at its conclusion.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her fitted satin, street-length dress had long lace sleeves, and the train was attached at the shoulders with satin bows. A satin bow held

Lighten Hair With Care

Becoming a blonde has its problems, even in this day of safe and easy-to-use products. However, the biggest pitfall of lightening your own hair is overlapping while lightening the new hair growth, and this can be eliminated with care and baby oil. Carefully apply the lightener to only the root area that needs retouching, then apply baby oil to the rest of the hair strand to keep the bleaching product from seeping onto the hair that is already lightened.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "It's such a pleasure to be in a hit picture at last," says Ruth Gordon with all the verve of a starlet.

Miss Gordon resembles a starlet in her passion for her work, her youthful outlook, even her miniskirts. But she is an unabashed 73—and still going at top speed.

She has lately been accorded more than the usual attention she gets as one of America's most distinguished actresses and writers—she has written such plays as "Over 21" and "Years Ago" and coauthored with her husband Garson Kanin scripts of "A Double Life," "Adam's Rib" and other films.

The reason for the fuss over Ruth Gordon is her performance in "Rosemary's Baby," in which she plays Mia Farrow's nosy neighbor. Her work drew applause from preview audiences and predictions of an Academy Award nomination from critics.

"All the other pictures I've made were unsuccessful," she remarked. "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," "Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet," "Two-Faced Woman," "Action in the North Atlantic"—well, that one was a hit, but I only played a one-day bit in it as Raymond Massey's wife because he asked me to.

"Then there was 'Edge of' (which got her an Academy nomination) and 'Lord Love a Duck.' None of them did for me what 'Rosemary's Baby' has done; already I've had three offers for roles. I turned them down because they weren't different enough.

"But the best part of the whole thing is the way the young crowd has taken to the role. They come up and compliment me at parties and on the street. I think that's simply great. You can grow old and you can get old—or you can grow old and stay with it. I much prefer to stay with it."

There is no doubt that Miss

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN...

Dear Helen: This sounds like it's out of "Amazing Confessions," but I swear it's true. I took out a post office box so you could answer me. If you don't hear from me in two weeks, please put a "Personal to—" in the paper, as my husband finds out everything I do to escape him, and I may not get your letter.

He seemed like a wonderful man when I married him two years ago. He said he had a restaurant just across the border and I could help out as cashier. I turned out to be a bar for men. Well, I worked as cashier for about six months, and then he said I had to dance with the customers, for 50 cents a dance. He collected. I never got any money of my own. By that time I knew how terrible he was, but I couldn't get away. He'd beat me if I tried to stay out of the bar.

You know what happened next: From 50 cents a dance, it got so it was $5.00 for the back room. What could I do? I tried to run away, but I didn't get far without money, and I got a terrible beating—he knows how to hurt with no bruises that show.

I begged the money for the post office box from a truck driver. He's the only man I've ever seen in two years who was kind to me. This is a little Mexican border town and nobody cares what happens to anyone else so long as they don't get in trouble.

I don't have any relatives in the States. You're my last hope. Please help me. — PRISONER
Dear Readers: This is a "Now it can be told" column. "Prisoner's" letter came to me two years ago. Frankly I didn't know whether it was true or not, but I wrote to her box number and a card said she got my message—and with it the courage to make a break. Yesterday a letter arrived from "NO LONGER A PRISONER," datelined Oklahoma. It read,

"Dear Helen: You probably won't remember me, but I'm the woman whose husband was 'selling' her in a Mexican bar. I took your advice and told the truck driver my story. He helped me get away—we sneaked out the back door and into his truck, and he never stopped until he was 300 miles south. He helped me get back to my present home too, and he still sees me once in a while, but we're just friends. Maybe—someday when we both can forget lots of things—it will be different. Meanwhile I've got a good job and feel almost decent again."

Whether this is a true happy ending, or an elaborate hoax I'll never know, but I thought you readers would like to share it

CATHY SHIELDS

Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Shields of Hot Springs, formerly of Hope, announce the engagement of their daughter, Cathy, to Jimmy Baxter son of Mr. and Mrs. James Baxter of Biscoe, Arkansas. They will have a double ring ceremony on August 16th at Cutter Morning Star. Cathy is a 1968 graduate of Cutter Morning Star School and Jimmy finished this year at DeVal's Bluff. They will live in Nashville, Tennessee where the groom will be in school. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fuller of Hope Rt. One are Cathy's maternal grandparents.

She appears to have no formula for her immense vitality beyond a three-mile daily walk and a sustaining interest in the world around her.

Gordon is with it. She can talk with teen-agers on their own terms. She can rhapsodize over such new theater as "Hair" and "Your Own Thing." Mia Farrow calls her "my only hippie friend."

Dear Helen: Would you please tell my wife that a cold cream she pays 79 cents for does as much for her face as the one she is using—which costs $7.50?—BEAUTY-BROKE

Dear B.B.: I could tell her from now until the crows' feet stamped—so could her doctor and every researcher (except those working for top line cosmetic companies)—and she wouldn't listen. Most women measure beauty by the price. When your wife applies $7.50 cream, she FEELS more beautiful, therefore she looks better—at least to herself. So she works harder to keep that look, and she gives credit to the special qualities of the cream.

She can get the same effect from the cheaper spread, but snobpsychology won't let her believe it.—Pity...—H.

Tear Gas in Akron Ends Race Riot

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Police used tear gas to break up some groups of youths as they enforced an overnight curfew in a Negro section that was the scene of widespread looting the previous night.

The arrests totaled 123 persons. Almost all arrested were Negroes. Forty-two persons were arrested Wednesday night. The city became quiet early today as National Guardsmen helped police patrol the streets. A steady rain lasted for several hours Thursday night.

Police used tear gas in arresting about 40 young people as curfew violators Thursday night at the new Afro-American Liberation Front, a storefront club on Wooster Avenue.

Police ordered the youths to leave the clubhouse, but they answered that they thought the curfew order simply meant they had to be off the streets from 9 p.m. to 6 a.m.

The police, with some Summit County sheriff's deputies and guardsmen assisting, then broke windows and tossed tear gas inside. The youths were taken from the clubhouse into police vans. Newsmen on the scene said some were clubbed with nightsticks, but police denied that anyone was clubbed.

Two young men were cut by glass and treated at a hospital. There was no repetition of the looting Wednesday night involving roving bands of young Negroes.

A force of 450 National Guardsmen was on duty.

Marichal Beats Cards in Final

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Juan Marichal has finally caught up to the St. Louis Cardinals. If the rest of the San Francisco Giants can't say the same come Sept. 20 they'll be playing for a new manager next spring. Just before Marichal blanked the Cards 3-0 Thursday night and evened his lifetime record against them at 15-15, Herman Franks confirmed reports that he would retire as manager of the Giants if they don't win the National League pennant.

Owner Horace Stoneham shouldn't have long to wait before applications start pouring in since the Giants still are in fourth place, 13 games behind St. Louis, after ending the Cards' winning streak at six games.

Elsewhere, Atlanta walloped Houston 7-1 and the New York Mets downed Pittsburgh 3-0. Los Angeles was rained out at Cincinnati and the Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago Cubs were not scheduled.

In the American League, Detroit topped Oakland 3-1, the Chicago White Sox nipped Baltimore 2-1, Minnesota defeated Boston 7-2 and the New York Yankees turned back Washington 4-1.

"Four years is enough," Franks said. "Change is good for everybody. I just made the statement that if we couldn't win the pennant this year, then I would resign. It's that simple."

Franks qualified the announcement by adding that "more than likely" he would return if the Giants did pull out a pennant. He said he mentioned his views to Stoneham about a month ago, but added, "We won't talk about it until after the season."

Marichal, the NL's top winner, ran his record to 17-4 with a four-hitter and even drove in a run with a second-inning single. He retired 17 batters in order over one stretch until Lou Brock singled to open the ninth.

The Giants scored twice off Steve Raritan in the second on singles by Willie Mays, Jim Hart, Hal Lanier and Marichal. They added a run in the eighth when Mays walked, stole second and scored on a single by Jesus Alou.

The Cardinals saw their league lead chopped to nine games when second-place Atlanta beat Houston behind the hitting of Tommie Aaron and Pat Jarvis' two-hit pitching.

Aaron broke a 1-1 tie with a bases-loaded triple in the third inning off Dave Glusti and knocked in another run with a single in the eighth. Not to be outdone, big brother Hank singled home a run in the ninth.

Jarvis, 10-6, has never lost to the Astros and beat them for the fifth time. He allowed singles by Hector Torres in the first and Doug Rader in the seventh.

Seaver tied a club record with his fourth shutout of the season as the Mets hopped back over Los Angeles and Pittsburgh into seventh place. Al Jackson did it in 1962. Carl Willey in 1963 and Jerry Koosman has already done it this year.

The Mets nipped Al McBean for all their runs in the sixth inning on Bud Harrelson's single, a walk, Art Shamsky's bunt hit, a force play and singles by Jerry Grote and Phil Linz.

MASKED MARVEL? "Cat-in-hat" wasn't a mystery entry in the Hamburg (Germany) Derby; he was just covered up this way to prevent a call after he ran in race.

2 Nelson Proteges Seek PGA

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Marty Fleckman is leading the PGA golf championship through the coaching of Byron Nelson—but his tutor has picked another man.

"I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Lee Trevino went all the way to win this one," Nelson, a two-time PGA titlist, said before the tournament started Thursday. Trevino backed up the prediction by opening with a 69, but the U.S. Open champion's start wasn't fast enough to hold the lead.

Fleckman, a dark, handsome 24-year-old, rode a hot putter to a four-under-par 66 on the mangled Pecan Valley course, taking a two-stroke edge over tour veteran Frank Beard.

Fleckman gave full credit to Nelson, once one of golf's most polished players.

"I try to corner him every chance I get," said Fleckman, who turned pro only a year ago after leading the 1967 U.S. Open for three rounds as an amateur.

"Byron got me back on the track after the U.S. Open this year when I missed the cut," Fleckman said. "I spent a whole day working with him then, and I've been in the money the last five or six weeks."

Fleckman, who won the Cajun Classic in his first start as a pro, said he thinks he is playing better now because he is starting to feel at home on the tour.

Beard, who missed a chance to share the lead when he bogeyed the last two holes, replied "no comment" when asked what he thought of the layout.

Arnold Palmer, who opened with a 71, called the 18th hole "ridiculous" because only Jack Nicklaus was able to drive over the creek.

Nicklaus shot a 71, two strokes back of Trevino, Mason Rudolph and young Don Bles. Deadlocked at 70 were Dan Sikes, Charles Coody, Miller Barber, Johnny Pott, former PGA titlist Al Gelberger, Frank Boynton and Laurie Hammer.

Bill Rasper, one of the pre-tournament favorites, slipped to a 74. Tom Weiskopf, another contender, soared to a 77. Dave Stockton, who won two titles and $62,000 in his last two starts on the tour, had 75 on the 7,096-yard course.

Defending champion Don January shot a 78, which left him in danger of missing the cut today when the field will be trimmed to the low 70 scorers and ties after the second round.

Travelers
Win Over
Albuquerque

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rain postponed half of Thursday night's Texas League scheduled but the Arkansas Travelers took advantage of good weather to defeat the Albuquerque Dodgers 4-1 and move out to a one-game lead in the league's Eastern Division.

The Travels gained the lead for good in the seventh on a sacrifice by Bobby Dews that broke a 1-1 tie. Arkansas added two insurance runs in the eighth on singles by Billy Wolff, Jerry Devanor and John Slinn.

Phil Knuckles, who needed help in the eighth inning, was the winner.

Arkansas took a 1-0 lead in the fifth on Boots Day's single but the Dodgers came back with a run in the seventh on a double by Ken Washington and a single by John Butler.

Dallas-Fort Worth defeated San Antonio 3-2 in the only other game played. Amarillo at Shreveport and El Paso at Memphis were rained out.

1 Old Pro Out; Another Returns

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Richie Petitbon, a one-time all-pro defensive back, suddenly retired. And John McCormick, a one-time starting quarterback in the American Football League, just as suddenly unretired.

"I guess I just got the itch," said McCormick, Denver's No. 1 signal-caller in 1965 and 1966. He retired at the end of the 1966 season to go into the insurance business.

"I miss football and I'll be glad to get back," said the 31-year-old veteran, who joined the Broncos in 1963 after a year with Minnesota as a backup quarterback and punter. "I just hope I can be of help."

Petitbon, who went to the Chicago Bears from Tulane in 1959, said Thursday he decided to quit the game and devote full time to his insurance and real estate business in New Orleans.

"Due to increased business pressure," he wrote the Bears, "I will be unable to leave New Orleans this season. It was probably the hardest decision I've ever made, but I must look to the future. I felt the time had come to decide where I wanted to make my home and raise my children."

Petitbon was not the only one to retire. Three Minnesota Viking veterans announced their retirement. Linebackers Don Hansen and Paul Faust and defensive end Arnold Simkus said they have quit football because of other job opportunities. They did not elaborate.

In Green Bay, the champion Packers had their first scrimmage, with the defense crushing the offense.

Coach Phil Bengtson said the poor show by the offense was expected for two reasons, the offense had more new faces and it was primarily a running game with the defense knowing what to expect.

In Fullerton, Calif., two rookie quarterbacks for the Dallas Cowboys were outstanding in a controlled scrimmage with Los Angeles Rams rookies. The Dallas rookies were on offense, the Rams on defense.

Roger Staubach, who won't be discharged from the Navy until next year, and Bill Creeden combined to complete 19 of 28 passes for 293 yards and three touchdowns.

Heat exhaustion plagued the Washington Redskins at Carlisle, Pa., where the temperature hit 98. Flanker Jerry Smith and tackle Joe Rutgens, stricken Wednesday when the temperature went to 100, were released from the hospital but kept on the sidelines.

Running back Steve Thurlow was added to the hospital list Thursday. Rookie tackle Dennis Crane underwent treatment but was not hospitalized.

Greg Brezina, last of the Atlanta Falcons holdouts, came to terms in Johnson City, Tenn. Terms of the contract were not announced.

New York Jet quarterback Mike Taliaferro, who has spent most of his four seasons playing behind Joe Namath, asked to be traded.

"I want to go somewhere I'll have a chance to play," he said.

Jockey to Fly Between Races

Saturday is shaping up as an up-and-away day for Braulio Baeza and Manny Ycaza.

The two jockeys expect to ride in the 1¼-mile Brooklyn Handicap for 3-year-olds and up at Aqueduct and then fly by helicopter to Monmouth Park for the six-furlong Sorority Stakes for 2-year-old fillies.

Both are $100,000 - added races.

A third $100,000-added event Saturday will be the six-furlong Hollywood Juvenile Championship for 2-year-olds at Hollywood Park.

Baeza is scheduled to ride William L. McKnight's Dr. Fager in the Brooklyn and Wheatley Stable's unbeaten Big Advance in the Sorority. Ycaza has the mount on Mrs. Edith W. Bancroft's Damascus in the Brooklyn and Eaton and Kratz Lynne's Orphan in the Sorority.

If all goes as planned, the two jockeys will fly from Aqueduct to Monmouth in the private helicopter of Mrs. H.C. Phipps, owner of Wheatley Stable.

Ycaza executed a helicopter double July 4 when he finished third aboard Damascus in the Suburban Handicap at Aqueduct, then flew to Monmouth where he rode Dark Mirage to victory in the Monmouth Oaks.

Other probable starters in the Brooklyn are George D. Widener's Bold Hour, who beat Mr. Right and Damascus in last Saturday's Amory L. Haskell Handicap; Mrs. Bancroft's Hedevar; Mrs. Peter Duchin's Mr. Right and Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Advortor. Sly-George Stable's Fast Count and Gustave Ring's Grace Bron also are possibilities.

Dr. Fager, who beat Damascus in the Suburban to gain a 2-1 edge over the 1967 Horse of the Year, has drawn the high weight of 135 pounds.

Damascus has been assigned 130 in his bid to become the eighth thoroughbred to earn $1 million. He has earned $954,416.

Bold hour, who finished second in the Suburban before winning the Haskell, was given 119 pounds.

Expected to join Big Advance and Lynne's Orphan in the Sorority are Elberon Farm's Process Shot, Leslie Combs' Alert Princess, Max Gluck's Lady in Red, Robert J. Gleberg's Callant Bloom, Mac-Con Stable's Irish Sister, Michael G. Phipps' White Xmass and M.A. MacDonald's Ivy Hackett.

Each will pack 119 pounds. At least 12 are expected to start in the Hollywood Juvenile, with C.V. Whitney's Good Manners, a supplemental nominee at $7,500, the likely posttime favorite.

Other probable starters include Mrs. Bert W. Martin's Bold Thrust, Mrs. Joseph For-

Tigers Pick Up Steam, Take A's

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Detroit Tigers, after a brief plunge, seem to have righted themselves and resumed their earlier course that had them flying high in the American League.

After taking a commanding 9½ game lead into the All-Star break, the Tigers dropped two of three games at Minnesota and two straight to California, the first time this season they had lost two consecutive series.

Making things shakier still was the flight out of Anaheim in which their airplane plunged 500 feet to avoid hitting another plane in the traffic pattern during take off.

"We rattled around a bit," Manager Mayo Smith said, taking in both the flying and playing situation. But the spin seems over.

The Tigers steadied in Oakland and rode Earl Wilson's six-hitter to a 3-1 victory over the Athletics Thursday, giving them the series to games to one.

The victory brought Detroit's lead back to seven games over idle Cleveland while Baltimore fell to third place, 7½ games behind, by losing to the Chicago White Sox 2-1.

The New York Yankees stopped Washington 4-1 in the only night game and Minnesota bombed Boston 7-2 in the only other contest.

In the National League, San Francisco halted St. Louis 3-0 Atlanta crushed Houston 7-1, the New York Mets blanked Pittsburgh 3-0 and Los Angeles was rained out at Cincinnati in the only games scheduled.

Wilson, who led the league with 22 victories last season, took the Tigers in hand during his own attempt to get back on the beam after two earlier injuries kept him sidelined a month.

The hard-throwing right-hander, evening his record at 7-7, had a three-hit shutout until a double by Ramon Webster, a single by John Donaldson and an infield out got the A's a run in the eighth. But the Tigers had three runs by then.

Bill Freehan hit a sacrifice fly in the fourth inning off loser Lew Krausse, 6-8, after hits by Jim Northrup and Willie Horton. Don Wert's single, a double by Dick McAuliffe, an infield hit by Mickey Stanley and Northrup's sacrifice fly got two more in the fifth.

"I had probably the best stuff I've had in a long time," Wilson said, looking forward to another fast finish. Last year he was 9-7 at the All-Star break, closing with 13 victories, and in 1966 "I won 11 or 12 after the break."

Baltimore, which along with Cleveland had closed with 6½ games of Detroit, fell back as Eddie Fisher, Wilbur Wood and Hoyt Wilhelm combined to stop the Orioles, who got their only run on Frank Robinson's fifth homer.

The White Sox bunched all four of their hits in the first inning off loser Dave Leonard when Luis Aparicio doubled, Tommy Davis singled and Leon Wagner and Pete Ward each singled in runs. It was the fifth no's Mr. Joe F. and Fred W. Hooper's supplemented pair of Greek Statie and Target Day.

victory in six starts for the Sox under new manager Al Lopez.

Horace Clarke singled home the tie-breaking run for the Yankees in the seventh inning off losing reliever Bob Humphreys and Roy White followed with a home run. White also singled and scored the first run in the opening inning.

Stan Bahnsen worked 8 1-3 innings to raise his record to 8-6. Minnesota exploded for five runs in the sixth inning to overcome a 2-0 deficit. The big blow was a two-run double by Ted Uhlaender against loser Gary Bell, who relieved in the third inning when Jose Santiago left with a sore right elbow.

Dave Boswell scattered nine hits to square his record at 9-9.

Wilt Tells His Side of Trade Story

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain, gone from the Philadelphia basketball scene, took time out Thursday to polish his image.

The 7-foot-1 center, in a telephone interview from New York, said he wanted to give his version of why he was traded to the Los Angeles Lakers in one of the biggest deals in the history of the National Basketball Association.

Chamberlain said the Philadelphia 76ers' side of the story is "slightly tainted."

"I understand it made me look ungrateful," Chamberlain said. "My side of the story is deserving to be heard."

Chamberlain subsequently claimed:

— The 76ers asked for his suggestion on a replacement for resigned Coach Alex Hannum and later offered him the job as player-coach.

— He didn't price himself out and force the 76ers to trade him because he never asked for a specific figure.

— Owner Irv Kosloff's proposal for a contract came out to less money than Chamberlain made last year.

— Kosloff led him to believe he didn't want to negotiate. Chamberlain also agreed with the theory that Kosloff "gave up" after two meetings during a 19-day period before the 76ers dealt Chamberlain to the Lakers for Archie Clark, Darrell Imhoff and Jerry Chambers.

The 76ers had said Chamberlain, the game's greatest offensive player, was dealt because he asked for too much in contract negotiations. The superstar was said to have wanted a three-year million dollar contract, plus part-ownership of the team.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Miller Barber of Texarkana, one of the top money winners on the professional golf tour this year, heads into the second round of the PGA Golf Championship today only four shots back of the leader.

Barber recorded an even par 70 Thursday and is in a tie for sixth place. He was under par with a 34 on the front side but had a 1-over-par 36 on the final nine.

R. H. Sikes of Springdale shot a 76 with nines of 39-37. Marty Fleckman knocked four strokes off par to take the first-round lead with a 66.

MANKATO, Minn. (AP) — Two football players from Arkansas left the summer training camp of the Minnesota Vikings Thursday one day after being given a trial as free agents.

A Viking spokesman said Martine Bercher, a defensive back, from the University of Arkansas and Don Evans, a tackle from Arkansas AM&N, left the squad.

on what you are, Noah Porter said it.

There will be a welner roast on the lawn at the Church of God in Christ No. 2 Friday July 19th (tonight) at 7:30, sponsored by Mrs. W. Pondexter and Mrs. J. Welch. The public is invited. Elder L. C. Washington, Pastor.

Appreciation services for Elder Jesse Graves will be held at the Church of God, Sunday July 21st, at 2 p.m. Elder J. D. Burchette of Nashville will be the speaker for the occasion; music will be furnished by: Eddie Wyatt, Mrs. Emma Stuart, Mrs. Catherine Lacy, and the Common Hill Baptist Church chorus, Mt. Zion Chorus of Hope. The public is invited.

COMING AND GOING

Clyde Trotter of Little Rock, Arkansas is visiting his mother Mrs. Cassie Trotter in Washington, Ark.

Mrs. Constance Allen of the city and her daughter Mrs. Verma Sims of Flint, Michigan, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flenory on July 14th.

Mrs. Beatrice Braggs went to Dallas, Texas where she boarded American Airlines for San Diego, California to visit her children, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilburn and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Braggs and family, Mrs. Margie Boyd and Sharon. She will also visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elliott and family in Los Angeles.

Leroy Powell of St. Louis, Missouri is visiting his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McFadden.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pero and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Willo C. Bowles have returned to their homes in Los Angeles, California after spending two weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bowles of McNab. The Peros flew from Los Angeles to Dallas, Texas, and the Bowles motored to Arkansas via Des Moines, Iowa where they visited the Wellingtons.

For Feminine Flattery

To activate the romantic mood, a confection of chiffon, ostrich and silk organza flowers all intermingled into a wrap-around of feminine flattery. One extravagantly romantic creation is a satin capelet with tiers of ostrich feathers. Handling of ruffles makes news as trim on scarves, in ruffled circles for necklines, in polka dots and coin dots and in Edwardian flavored ruffle-edged ascots.

Cuba Runs School for Revolt

HAVANA (AP) - Fidel Castro's government is giving revolutionary training to scores of leftist students from abroad at a special institute tucked away in the hills of Pinar Del Rio Province.

The majority of the students are French. There are also more than 70 Swedes reported enrolled, two or three from the United States and a scattering from Vietnam, England, Norway, Denmark and West Germany.

The students deny reports, from France that they are being taught guerrilla tactics for use in the cities.

"We are studying the Cuban revolution and working to help the campesinos (peasants)," said a French student.

"I guess you could describe the seminars as political training," said a Dane.

From conversations with some of the students and others who have visited the institute, those attending apparently agree with Cuba's advocacy of armed struggle to make social revolution. And most apparently intend to try to carry out such a policy when they return home.

The students put in half of their working day on special agricultural projects and attend seminars the other half. About 400 took part in the six-week course which just ended. About a hundred new students are expected next week, but some of the old ones are staying on for a second course.

The institute is called the Fifth of May Camp, honoring the birth date of Karl Marx. It is near the village of Cayajobos, about 45 miles southwest of Havana.

Today's six-club contract would be a cinch had West opened anything but a spade. Declarer wouldn't like a diamond opening but he would take a heart finesse at trick two. When that worked, he would simply play out ace and another club and eventually run the hearts to take care of his spade losers.

New Jersey expert Ira Rubin was declarer when West opened the three of spades. Ira won the first trick with the queen over East's jack, cashed the ace of spades and ruffed his last spade. Then he finessed his jack of clubs and played the ace. The king failed to drop and Ira threw East in with that card.

At this point, Alvin Roth, one of the greatest players in the world, who sat East, made a really brilliant play which did nothing to make things easier for declarer. He played his eight of diamonds! Ira ruffed. It would have been rather silly to play Roth for the ace of diamonds so early in the play, when there was still a really good play in hearts left.

Now Ira ran off all his trumps. West let one heart go somewhere along the line. Two hearts were played from dummy early and, finally, the last diamond—Roth, sitting East, hung on to his nine of hearts, ace of diamonds and a spade.

The next play was the king of hearts, to which everyone followed. The four of hearts produced the eight from West and the moment of decision had arrived. The three missing cards were the queen of hearts, a spade and the ace of diamonds. West still held one card. If it was the ace of diamonds or the spade, Ira could rise with the ace of hearts and drop East's queen.

Ira knew that Roth had been capable of underleading his ace of diamonds, so there was no clue there. Finally, Ira decided to play general percentage. West had started with more hearts than East, therefore he was more likely to hold the queen. Ira finessed and made the slam.

Not Necessary to Remove Flowers from Sick Room

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—Is it true that flowers in a hospital room absorb all the oxygen and that is why they are taken out at night?

A—No. A plant can release at most 10 milligrams of carbon dioxide per gram of dry weight per hour and consumes seven milligrams of oxygen in the same period—an infinitesimal amount. The nurse who enters the sickroom and removes the plant contributes more carbon dioxide and uses more oxygen in that brief period than the plant would if left in the room all night. In most hospitals, the flowers are no longer removed at night.

Q—How dangerous is the

Into Thin Air

Violet kept a valuable brooch in a jewel box, to which her maid had easy access. One day the maid suddenly left town. And immediately afterward, Violet discovered that the brooch was missing too.

But when she put in a claim under her theft insurance policy, the company refused to pay off. "It's true she is covered for theft," conceded the company in a court test. "But she has no solid proof of any theft. The police never did locate the maid for questioning."

Nevertheless, the court upheld Violet's claim. The judge said the disappearance of the brooch, plus the additional circumstance of the maid's hasty departure, was enough indication that a theft had indeed taken place.

Such circumstantial evidence is often sufficient to establish an insurance claim for theft. In fact, under many modern policies, you are protected also against "mysterious disappearance"—even if there are no additional circumstances pointing to theft.

Take this case:
A movie patron, after washing up in the men's rest room, absently left his gold ring on the wash basin. By the time he remembered and came back for it, the ring had vanished into thin air.

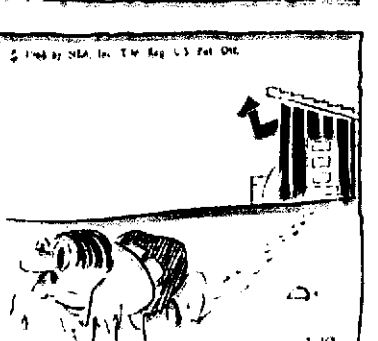

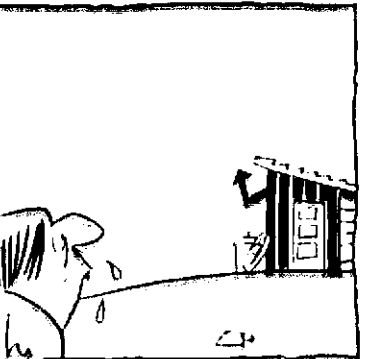

Here there were no clues at all to the fate of the ring. Nevertheless, the loss was held collectible under a "mysterious disappearance" clause. The court pointed out that, although the man knew where he had left the ring, there was mystery as to what happened to it afterward.

On the other hand, disappearance alone—with nothing puzzling about it—is usually not covered by theft insurance. Thus:
A housewife noticed that her diamond ring was missing from her finger, shortly after she had been struggling to unclog the garbage disposal. In this case, a court ruled that she could not collect for "mysterious disappearance." The judge said it was pretty obvious that she had simply lost the ring down the drain.

Of course, you can buy protection for even an ordinary, non-mysterious loss. But if you want that broader kind of coverage, you should make that clear to your insurance counselor at the time you take out a policy.

drug Chloromycetin? What is it for? What are the side effects?

A—The antibiotic chloramphenicol (Chloromycetin) is used in the treatment of typhoid, typhus and other acute infections. It should not be used for minor infections. Because in some patients it destroys the white blood cells, it may cause a dangerous loss of ability to ward off even mild infections. For this reason, many physicians now prefer other, safer antibiotics.

Q—Can a person get a good suntan by sitting in the sunshine that is coming through windows.

A—No. Ordinary window glass filters out actinic rays. Special glass which allows such rays to pass through can be purchased but it is not advised for general use.

Q—In a recent column, you stated that mucous colitis is not caused by a germ and for this reason no antibiotic would be helpful. In another column, you said that chronic amebic dysentery and other intestinal infections were a cause. Doesn't this conflict with your first statement? How do doctors decide whether it is caused by nervous tension or an infection? Does the white blood count show infection anywhere in the body? What is the normal white blood count?

A—I rely on alert readers like you to keep me on my toes. I did not intend to confuse or mislead you. The garden variety or run-of-the-mill case of mucous colitis is caused by nervous tension, laxatives and irritating foods. On the other hand, intestinal infections, although not as common as they once were, do exist. It is important for your doctor to differentiate between the two conditions. He bases his diagnosis on your history, whether there is a fever, physical examination and laboratory findings, especially the stool examination.

A high white cell count is found in many but not all acute febrile infections, including those of the digestive tract.

A Closer Walk With God

Will Lead You Right Straight to Church

SUPPORT YOUR CHURCH

"Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it..."

HAVE
IN

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Williams Newspaper Features
© P. O. Box 211, Ft. Worth, Tex.

You have called a man to become your minister; you have chosen him with calm deliberation...with great care. That means that you desire a spiritual church in the service and worship of God.

THE minister is your prophet, even as he is also the prophet of the Most High. It follows that you have promised to harken to the message which that "preacher-prophet" is to bring. Else, why did you make him your minister? He expects, through prayer and meditation, to find the will of God for himself and for you and for our world. Listen then to what the divine purpose for you may be!

THE preacher is the leader of his people, under the Spirit of God. How necessary that there shall be women and men to follow where he marks out the path of Christian living! That likely means regular attendance at the services of prayer in your church. It means also an eager listening to the Scriptural exposition, in which men find what God has for them to be and to do, as well as the blessed aid of His Spirit in all one's efforts.

THE Church is a fellowship of women and men, inspired by the example and the teaching of the Master, united about the Spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ, and committed with Him to the coming of the Kingdom of God upon the earth. It takes us all together to create and to maintain such a healing and strengthening and comforting fellowship. You and I need the divine comradeship which the church affords. Let's do our part to make a good church in our community; God will do His part, we may be sure. As much so as does the Preacher, we have a ministry to carry out. "Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it..." Attend your church.

Come let us go into the House of the Lord

If your church is to be a going concern, it must have church-going members. Sponsors listed below urge you to attend services this week.

Missions Set Up by 1st Baptist

A series of mission churches have been established by First Baptist Church of Hope during its first 100 years of existence which will be celebrated with a 3-day program July 26, 27 and 28.

Some of the missions were for only short periods, while others have grown to be independent churches. The latest mission church was started in 1956 on West Avenue B under the leadership of Rev. S. A. Whitlow. The mission became Calvary church and independent on January 1, 1959.

At the request of the pastor, five persons left First Church to work at the mission, Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Hamilton, and Mrs. Florence Hicks.

Pastors have been James Hunt, now at Fort Smith; J. D. Passmore, pioneer mission worker now in Washington state; John Finn, associational missionary in north Arkansas; Gerald Schleich, with his wife, missionaries in Rhodesia, and at the present time Thomas Simmons.

The present resident enrollment is 229 and the average Sunday School attendance is 140. Larry Williams, while an OBU student, served as first minister of music. Mrs. Hugh Jones, formerly librarian and church visitor of First Church, is the present secretary. Hervey Holt is the present superintendent of the Sunday School.

Sunday was named for the sun; Monday for the moon.

Eisenhower O.K. Big Lift for Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is banking on his endorsement for the Republican presidential nomination by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to pay dividends both before and after the GOP national convention.

On the mend at Walter Reed Army Hospital from a heart attack, Eisenhower left his sickbed Thursday to declare his support for Nixon, who served under him as vice president for eight years in the 1950s.

Termining the endorsement a "great lift" in the contest for the GOP nomination, Nixon said he believes it may make Nixon men of some convention delegates who haven't made up their minds.

And it will be no less an asset in the campaign proper, after the nomination is his, Nixon said.

A major development in the Democratic race was reported today by the New York Times, which said Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, strongest contender for the presidential nomination, has indicated he will try to enlist Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts as his running mate.

Humphrey was quoted in the interview as saying he will meet with Kennedy in the next few days.

He said he is aware of reports Kennedy would neither seek nor accept the vice presidential nomination, but added: "I have no reason to believe that. I hope it's not true."

Kennedy is the brother of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York, who was battling Humphrey for the presidential nomination until he was slain in June.

Humphrey has been off the campaign trail since last week because of a bout with influenza but aides said he has booked numerous out-of-town appearances starting Monday.

He was challenged to debate Thursday by his rival for the nomination, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn.

McCarthy charged in Atlanta the vice president's statements on the war in Vietnam "offer the same analysis and the same explanations we have heard from him the past three and a half years."

McCarthy drew good crowds as he campaigned in punishing heat in Atlanta and Raleigh and Charlotte, N. C.

Another candidate out in the sun was Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Nixon's principal opponent in the GOP nomination fight. Frequently without a coat, Rockefeller toured Ohio, considered a pivotal state in the nomination contest.

Several thousand persons turned out to hear him at the Capitol building in Columbus as he called for "new leadership" in the party and nation.

He also met privately with 43 members of Ohio's 58-vote delegation to the national convention, including Gov. James A. Rhodes, Ohio's favorite son candidate. Rhodes declined comment afterward on what impression Rockefeller made.

California's Gov. Ronald Reagan, still technically a noncandidate, planned to fly into Amarillo today to address a $100-a-plate GOP dinner at which he could expect to mingle with at least half of the Texas convention delegates—as well as some from Oklahoma, New Mexico, Kansas and Colorado.

The Amarillo shebang—a crowd of 3,000 and up is expected—will be the kickoff of a two-week Southern tour for Reagan during which he will have frequent opportunity to meet other convention delegates.

George C. Wallace, whose third-party campaign is showing too much muscle to suit Republican and Democratic regulars, said in St. Louis he opposes promoting Associate Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas to the job of chief justice.

President Johnson was within his rights in nominating Fortas but Congress also has the right "not to confirm," Wallace said.

No Letup in Bombs Until Enemy Bows

SAIGON (AP) — The United States will continue to bomb North Vietnam until the Hanoi government pledges "important and serious reciprocal acts of restraint," U.S. Defense Secretary Clark Clifford said today.

Little action was reported from the battlefronts.

The U.S. Marines said they killed 77 North Vietnamese in two encounters just south of the demilitarized zone on Wednesday. U.S. B52 bombers pounded some more areas where enemy troops were believed getting ready for an attack on Saigon.

And the weekly casualty report reflected the prolonged lull with another reduction in the number of men killed on both sides.

Clifford told an airport news conference at the end of a four-day visit to Vietnam that a halt to the bombing of North Vietnam's southern panhandle would not endanger the allied troops in South Vietnam if Hanoi also made a serious de-escalation move.

President Johnson put the rest of North Vietnam off limits to U.S. attack on March 31. However, the North Vietnamese so far have not shown any willingness to respond to a bombing halt with a similar act of restraint, Clifford added.

The defense chief repeated his warning Wednesday that another major enemy offensive against Saigon and the northern provinces is expected any time between now and early September.

"We've been watching the flow of men and material down the panhandle of North Vietnam," he said. "It's been substantially increased. Although the enemy has sustained substantial losses, they apparently have the capability to replace those losses."

Clifford took off for Honolulu to report to President Johnson on his visit.

South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu was to leave for Hawaii several hours later to confer with Johnson there Friday and Saturday.

The U.S. Command's summary of casualties last week said 188 Americans were killed in combat, 10 less than the week before and the second lowest weekly total for the year. The American wounded increased slightly over the week before, from 1,248 to 1,337.

A total of 874 enemy dead were reported for last week, the lowest in a year and a half, but the U.S. Command said this was "subject to adjustment." South Vietnamese headquarters reported 157 government soldiers killed last week, the lowest number since the week ending March 2.

Along the demilitarized zone, meanwhile, 25 U.S. Air Force B52 bombers roared into North Vietnam today for another round of heavy raids on Communist supply lines for troops and war materials going south.

Two waves of America's biggest bombers hammered enemy truck parks, storage areas, supply bunkers and construction equipment 12 to 15 miles north of the DMZ.

Two more waves pounded surface-to-air missile sites, artillery positions, truck parks and storage areas from 4 to 11 miles north of the DMZ.

Since July 1, the B52s have flown 46 missions along the southern tip of North Vietnam, dropping about 7,000 tons of bombs.

Fortas Draws Fine Line Between What He Writes and Says

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Abe Fortas has told Senate critics the Constitution allows him to lecture and write about issues that come before the Supreme Court, but forbids him to answer questions from members of Congress about the same matters.

Fortas repeated this theme over and over Thursday before the Senate Judiciary Committee as he testified for the third day on his qualifications to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice of the United States.

It was by far the roughest meeting yet for Fortas. But prospects were that today's session would be the last for him, opening the way for committee questioning of Homer Thornberry, named by Johnson to fill the vacancy created by Fortas' elevation from justice to chief justice.

Fortas did tell the committee he was opposed to Communists holding defense jobs or teaching school and that he approved of Congress' right to investigate subversion.

And, he said, "there is under our system of government no place for lawlessness or violence."

But when pressed by Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., to relate these beliefs to recent Supreme Court decisions in which he took part, Fortas drew the line.

"My constitutional responsibility requires me, however unpleasant it may be, to decline to answer questions of the kind you have propounded," Fortas said.

"I regret it. I repeat, I regret it deeply," he headed.

Fortas said "judges . . . may not be held to answer before any other branch of the government for their views." He called this a principle "that is fundamental to our tripartite division of government."

Thurmond said "It might be hard to explain to the public" how Fortas could make lectures and otherwise expound on his views and then say he could not answer questions "when you come before the Judiciary Committee for a promotion to be chief justice of the United States."

"You have expressed your views to the President when he has called you down there, and over the telephone, haven't you?" Thurmond asked.

"No, sir," Fortas replied. "Never."

Thurmond pressed: "And he got the benefit of your views on matters, did he not?"

Fortas: "Never."

Thurmond: "Why shouldn't a senator have the benefit of your views?"

Fortas: "I have never, never been asked by the President nor have I expressed my views on any pending or decided case—never, senator, never."

Meanwhile, a speech on the Senate floor underscored again the fight that lies ahead after committee hearings on the Fortas-Thornberry nominations.

Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., said he still planned to vote against the two and called the nominations "an extreme and flagrant example of making the court a political football."

Baker is one of 18 Republican senators who have declared their intention to oppose Fortas and Thornberry down the line. Several Southern Democrats also have said they would vote against the two.

What About Secret Medicine Doctors Save for Selves?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that doctors get tired of hearing—or overhearing:

"I can't come to your office today, doc. I don't feel so good."

"Is it true that doctors have secret medicines that they save for themselves, in case they get sick?"

"If you're not sure exactly what's wrong with me, why don't I just wait while you look it up in a book?"

"Don't doctors ever practice what they preach? You tell me I ought to take off 10 pounds, but unless I miss my guess you ought to take off at least 20 yourself."

"Can't you prescribe something for me that comes in a pink capsule? I always seem to get well quicker when I take pink-colored medicines."

"How can you tell if a doctor has a good bedside manner any more? You can't get them to come to your bedside."

"No, I'm not really a patient."

"Instead of diagnosing it as gastritis from too much beer, Doc, couldn't you just give me a little note for my boss saying it's a potential ulcer from too much work and worry? That'll get me a lot more sympathy at the office."

"I can remember when his grandfather used to come to our house in his horse and buggy, even to treat a headache, and he only charged $2."

High Winds Cause Loss at Magnolia

High winds uprooted trees, toppled power lines and knocked out windows of several businesses at Magnolia Thursday night.

Magnolia police said no one was injured by the severe weather, which developed in advance of a slow moving cool front that the U. S. Weather Bureau says will give Arkansas relief from the high humidity that has prevailed for several days.

Magnolia officers said windows in a half dozen or more businesses had been blown out.

Authorities also said the winds, clocked at up to 58 miles an hour, tore a portion of a roof from one warehouse. Unofficially, almost three inches of rain was recorded within an hour. Some hail also was reported.

The Weather Bureau also reported that winds at Hot Springs were clocked at more than 50 miles an hour, but there were no reports of damage.

Oil Discovery Opens Fortune for Alaska

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Gov. Walter J. Hickel sees the discovery of oil in Alaska's Arctic region as a key unlocking the state's vast potential and a stabilizer of its economy.

"It's tremendous," the governor kept saying Thursday after hearing that reserves estimated by oil experts at 5 to 10 billion barrels had been found in the Prudhoe Bay area along Alaska's Arctic coast.

The Arctic Slope is an expanse of endless tundra inhabited only by caribou, wolves and an occasional roving band of Eskimo hunters.

The area, some 390 miles north of Fairbanks, is a region long eyed with anticipation by petroleum geologists.

The U.S. Navy's Petroleum Reserve No. 4 lies to the west of the Atlantic Richfield-Humble discovery, in an area where the temperature merely toys with the freezing point—even during the long summer days when the Arctic sun never gets below the horizon.

Will Carry Arkansas — Wallace

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace said Thursday he would carry Arkansas in the Nov. 5 presidential election.

Wallace, in Arkansas to attend the funeral of Mrs. C.M. Sanders, 72, of Arkadelphia, said his situation in the state "looks good."

Wallace said he would return to Arkansas later this summer to formally campaign for the presidency.

The American Independent party candidate also said the polls which give him about 16 per cent of the vote underestimate his vote-getting ability. He said he has more support than the polls show, but declined to estimate a percentage.

Mrs. Sanders, described as a kind of housemother and counselor to several servicemen, had befriended Wallace and his wife in the 1940s when Wallace was an Air Force cadet.

Wallace said Mrs. Sanders had helped him and his wife by sometimes providing a place to stay or "when the allotment check was late."

Wallace declined to speak at the funeral in an Arkadelphia chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson, who helped get Wallace on the ballot in Arkansas, also attended the funeral. They spoke briefly with Wallace after the funeral.

Johnson is one of three Democrats seeking to unseat Sen. J. William Fulbright. His wife is one of six running for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Melton Family to Wreck Scene

MOUNT IDA, Ark. (AP) — Members of the family of Jonesboro businessman Marvin Melton are to fly here today to attempt to identify a body that was discovered in plane wreckage Wednesday about 20 miles southwest of Mount Ida.

Members of a timber team working for the National Forestry Service first spotted the wreckage of the light plane.

Melton disappeared last Oct. 13 on a flight from Jonesboro to Dallas. His disappearance set off the state's largest and longest air search.

Frank Roth, an air safety investigator for the National Transportation Safety Board, said the numbers on the aircraft's body, fire wall and tail matched those of the aircraft owned by Melton.

Roth also said investigators had discovered a cigarette lighter engraved with the initials "M.M." in the wreckage.

Ray Lodged in Jail at Memphis

By BILL JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — James Earl Ray, handcuffed and wearing what appeared to be a bullet-proof vest, was whisked into the Shelby County jail before dawn today to await trial on a charge of murdering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Ray was placed in his cell at the jail at 4:34 a.m. CDT, 46 minutes after he arrived at the nearby Memphis Naval Air Station aboard a U.S. Naval Force Boeing jet transport from London. He had left London about midnight—6 p.m. CDT—so that the entire trip took about 10½ hours.

From the Navy base, a blue-and-white prison van, surrounded by a half-dozen police cars and an equal number of motorcycles, roared into the parking lot behind the jail building at 4:29 a.m. CDT.

No newsman was allowed to see Ray, but Sheriff William Morris distributed photographs of the prisoner showing him dressed in what the sheriff told a news conference was "protective gear." He appeared to be dressed in a bullet-proof vest and he was handcuffed to a heavy leather belt.

"We took custody of Mr. Ray at 3:48 a.m. aboard a Boeing 707 at Millington," the sheriff said, referring to the Navy base at suburban Millington. "He arrived at the jail at 4:29 a.m. and was in his cell at 4:34 a.m."

The sheriff said Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Battle has been chosen to hear the murder trial, but "no courtroom has been selected for the trial yet." He added that no date for arraignment on the murder indictment has been set.

There was speculation that Ray may be tried in a basement courtroom at the jail-courthouse building, so that he would never have to leave the jail.

Judge Battle already has issued his first order in the case, the sheriff said. This forbids cameras, tape recorders or other similar devices from the courtroom-jail building, its grounds or sidewalk surrounding the structure—and forbids anyone connected with the case from giving interviews or otherwise discussing the case outside the courthouse or with anyone but lawyers connected with the case.

As photographers took Morris' picture during the news conference, the sheriff went on to explain that the "no publicity" order would go into effect immediately after the news conference.

The van carrying Ray to the jail was preceded by another police car loaded with the officers who immediately jumped out upon Ray, who had taken up station.

Brandon was taken to a local hospital for observation. No charges were filed. City officer A. C. Sinyard investigated.

U.S. Patrol Boat Seized by Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — The Cambodian navy was reported today to have seized an American patrol boat in the Mekong Delta and arrested 11 Americans and one South Vietnamese aboard.

U.S. military authorities in Saigon confirmed that a Navy landing craft was missing in the delta but said it had 10 Americans aboard. There was no mention of any South Vietnamese passenger. It was assumed to be the boat which a newspaper in Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital, said was seized a mile inside Cambodian river waters.

American authorities said the missing landing craft left Dong Tam, a base near the delta city of My Tho, on July 15 and headed up river for Binh Thuy, another base just up river from Can Tho, the delta's largest city. The trip up the Mekong and Bassac rivers and across major canals should have taken two days, but the boat did not arrive on the night of July 17.

U.S. headquarters said a search for the past two days had failed to produce any trace of the boat.

It was assumed that the United States would send Cambodia a request for return of the boat and its crew, using the Australian Embassy in Phnom Penh as the channel. Australia has represented U.S. interests in Cambodia since Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's chief of state, broke relations with Washington in 1965.

In the course of the Vietnam war, several small American craft have been seized by the Cambodians after straying across the border in the delta. All the crews have been returned, although the Cambodians have reportedly kept one small landing boat.

Border troubles between the Cambodian government and the U.S. and South Vietnamese forces in South Vietnam are frequent because the frontier at many points is unmarked, in dispute or poorly defined, and because Prince Sihanouk strongly opposes both the Saigon government and the U.S. military support of it.

Site Where Scorpion Lost, Found?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Specially equipped Navy vessels hunting the lost nuclear submarine Scorpion are searching with underwater cameras a "highly suspect" area southwest of the Azores, a Navy source said today.

"We haven't found her," the source added.

He described the intensity search area 450 miles from the Azores as having the "highest probability" of being the last resting place of the submarine.

When it sent its last radio message May 21, it was about 250 miles south of the Azores, on its way to Norfolk, Va., from duty in the Mediterranean with a crew of 99.

Westinghouse Broadcasting science specialist William Hines said today Navy vessels have located the Scorpion in one of the deepest parts of the Atlantic. He attributed his information to a highly reliable source.

But the Pentagon said, "There is no truth to the report that the U.S. Scorpion has been found."

A spokesman, who said he had checked with Atlantic Fleet headquarters in Norfolk, added, "They have found no parts or pieces of the Scorpion."

The Navy source said the two vessels, the Mizar and the Bowditch, are using underwater sensors and cameras to what he called a painstaking examination of the ocean bottom.

The Atlantic floor drops to 12,000 to 18,000 feet in the search area, the source estimated. This is well below the "crush depth" of the Scorpion, reported able to operate as deep as 1,200 feet.

The Navy source said some debris sighted soon after the Scorpion was reported overdue May 27 led to concentrating the search in the area where the Mizar and the Bowditch are now looking.

He indicated there may have been other sightings of debris since then, mentioning a rubber gasket.

Hines said although there is no official confirmation of the report from the Navy itself the Washington source was "too well informed to be mistaken about such things."

According to Hines, the site of the disaster is known within a mile or two and an announcement from the Navy may be imminent.

The Navy is said to have surface vessels on the scene using special automatic cameras on the ocean floor to take pictures of the wreckage.

"It is expected that as soon as the Navy has a picture it can release without giving away submarine construction secrets an official announcement of the Scorpion's whereabouts will be made. That could be any day now," Hines said.

The Scorpion with 99 men aboard, disappeared last May while en route from the Mediterranean to Norfolk, Va.

Milita to Oppose Czech Rule at Home

Officer Shot in 'Frisco Hippie Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A man was shot and a policeman injured as violence flared for the third straight night in the Haight-Ashbury hippie district. Michael Moore, 20, suffered a gunshot wound in an arm. Police said it was not determined who fired the shot.

The Thursday night outbreak followed the pattern of previous disturbances. False alarms attracted fire trucks, which were pelted with rocks and bottles.

Patrolman Frank Rath was treated for a back injury received while grappling with young men.

Police were targets of fire bombs and debris when they were called in to assist. None was injured.

Officers made 45 arrests, bringing the three-day total to more than 100.

Several stores were looted for the second time and broken glass again littered Haight Street, once the domain of "flower children" but now inhabited by what police called a tougher breed.
